

Featured Artist Friday!

We're adding these three new songs into our rotation this week and we want you to enjoy them!

We're gonna start off "On The Outskirts of Town" with the Time Jumpers with Vince Gill as they help you pass the time. They received two Grammy nominations and a segment on National Public Radio's All Things Considered.

As always, George Strait is always welcome, and he certainly makes an entrance with "Drinkin' Man". He has held the record for more #1 hit singles than any other artist ever. As of 2012, he has charted 52 number-one singles.

Finally, we close up with "More Life" by Randy Travis with Don Henley.

To recap:

- On The Outskirts of Town / The Time Jumpers with Vince Gill
- Drinkin' Man / George Strait
- More Life / Randy Travis with Don Henley (The Eagles)

Thanks for joining us this week!
