

This week's Live In Texas is the Old 97's, they are an alternative country band from Dallas, Texas, our backyard. Tune in Thursday, September 4th at 7pm to hear the entire Grand Theater: Volume 2 record!

Here's a quick intro to the Old 97's: they are an alternative country band from Dallas, Texas, our backyard. They formed in 1993, and have been recognized as pioneers in their genre during the mid to late 1990s. The band consists of Rhett Miller, lead vocals rhythm guitar and lyrics, Murry Hammond, bass guitar, Ken Bethea, lead guitar and Philip Peeples on the drums. They have since released nine studio albums, two full extended plays, shared split duty on another, and have one live album.

Photo of the band Old 97's. The photo shows the four band members sitting behind a wooden counter. The man on the far right has his hands on his face, looking distressed. The photo is taken from a slightly low angle, looking up at the band members. The background is a plain, light-colored wall with some window frames visible. The photo is framed by a black border.
