

It's Featured Artist Friday!

It's Featured Artist Friday and as promised, here are three new songs that are up for rotation! We start off with Thom Sheperd's "Country Police". Thom has credit for writing numerous country hits recorded by other artist including: "Redneck Yacht Club" recorded by Craig Morgan, " Riding with Private Malone" recorded by David Ball and "A Fathers Love" recorded by David Ball. Sheapord is based in Austin, Texas and His latest Single "Simplify" is rated in the Top 20 on both the Texas Regional Report and the Texas Music Charts. Next up we have Sammy Kershaw singing "

The Route That I Took (My Tribute to George Jones)".

Often referred to as the heir apparent to the legendary voice himself George Jones, Sammy Kershaw helped make the 90's a shining decade for country music. It's a comparison not lost on Sammy, who grew up in the Cajun country of Louisiana on a diet of craw-fish and country music. Finally we have "

Borderline Crazy" by

Bill Wence. Bill was one of the 30 Founding members of the American Music Association.
