

Welcome back, trop rockers! This week we're celebrating the songwriters!

1. It's A Moray - The Barefoot Man
2. Livin' The Life (Only Jimmy Buffett Wrote About) - Brent Burns
3. Corpus Christi Bay - Robert Earl Keen
4. Songs You Know By Heart - PHINS
5. I Lobster But I Never Flounder - John Reno & The Half-Fast Creekers

6. Jambalaya (On The Bayou) - Waylon Jennings

7. JB Song - Sonny Russell & the Tropics

8. Walkin' Around (The Border of the Quarter) - Todd Sparks

9. Gentleman of Leisure - Jimmy Buffett

10. Coastal Cowboy - John Friday

11. Port "A" Saturday Night - Jerry Diaz & Hanna's Reef

12. Cowboy Boots & Bathin' Suits - Jerry Jeff Walker

13. Magic Chair - John Reno & The Half-Fast Creekers

We've got a great show for you on this Halloween week! It's all about paying homage to the songwriters this week. Up first, we've got The Barefoot Man with his tropical version of a classic, "It's A Moray". Following him, it's Brent Burns and Robert Earl Keen with "Livin' The Life (Only Jimmy Buffett Wrote About)" & "Corpus Christi Bay". If you haven't already gotten tickets to see him, Robert Earl Keen will be playing at the Bass Performance Hall on December 28. Up next, out of St. Louis, MO, is PHINS with "Songs You Know By Heart". Then the first of 2 from John Reno & the Half-Fast Creekers with "I Lobster But I Never Flounder". A legendary songwriter is up next, Waylon Jennings with "Jambalaya (On the Bayou)". I can smell it now! I'd love to have some of that jambalaya in front of me. "JB Song" by Sonny Russell & the Tropics is up next, followed by "Walkin' Around (The Border of the Quarter)" by Todd Sparks. Then, of course, one of my personal favorite songwriters of all time, Jimmy Buffett, with "Gentleman of Leisure". Up next, a song that very closely resembles the name of this program, "Coastal Cowboy" by John

Friday, followed by "Port 'A' Saturday Night" sung by Jerry Diaz & Hanna's Reef. Playing us out, we've got a very well known singer/songwriter followed by the 2nd of a pair. Jerry Jeff Walker sings "Cowboy Boots & Bathin' Suits", then to end the show it's "Magic Chair" by John Reno & the Half-Fast Creekers. That's all for this week! Be sure to pay your own tribute to some of your favorite songwriters. Visit our Facebook page and let us know how you celebrated!