Happy Fourth of July everyone! This week we are putting on our patriot caps! So grab a drink, grab a chair, and some fireworks and join us as we salute our country Gulf Coast Cowboy style! This week we have a set of songs with a uniquely American flavor, written by the best Islanders around! Blake Shelton is first up with "Some Beach". Mac McAnally follows with "Sunny Day". Then Americas country couple Blake Shelton & Miranda Lambert join us to sing "America the Beautiful".

The Steve Heims Band show up to add a little Texas swing to our line up with "Nowhere but Texas". Next, Mike Aiken serenades us with "Thank You (My Buffett Tune)". Lady's and Gentleman Niel Diamond joins us singing "Bother Love's Traveling Salvation Show". Appropriately "Independence Day" by Martina McBride. The PHINS give us a ballad with "Songs You Know By Heart". "Hot Sand, Pina Coladas, and Caribbean Beer", that's something everyone needs at least once, from Seth Turner. Trip Hunt makes an appearance with "Pelicans' Paradise". Jimmy Buffett, everyone's gulf coast mentor is back again with his "Nobody from Nowhere". The Zac Brown Band also joins us again singing "

Chicken Fried". What is your favorite American song from the south? One song that makes everyone's list is

"God Bless the USA

" by Lee Greenwood. Our last song is a collaborative effort from two Texas Music Legends, Jerry Jeff Walker and Gary P Nunn sing "What I like about Texas".
