Hello and welcome back to the Gulf Coast Cowboy! This week, it's all about Key West (as if you couldn't tell)! Did you know that the official city motto is "One Human Family"? Let us take you away for a bit and enjoy this week's theme. Al Mosier is up first with "There's Something About Key West". Then Howard Livingston & Mile Marker 24 tell you what it's like "Livin' On Key West Time". Lenore Troia sings her love song to the island with "Everyone Has a Houseguest in Key West". "Mary Jane Goes to Key West" by Jim Morris comes up next, followed by "Key West Habit" by Loren Davidson. Up next, I just realized that if I left my office and drove to Key West, I could be there in 22 hours. Road trip anyone? Ok, back to reality, up next, The Tapwater Conchs chime in with

“What Happens In Key West
”, and is followed by “
Stuck in Key West Again
” from
Homemade Wine

Just Give Me the Keys
” by Rob Mehl is up next

. What Gulf Coas Cowboy would be complete without a selection from Jimmy? "Tin Cup Chalice" by Jimmy Buffett is up next, then Dani Hoy with "Drunk on Mallory Square". Up next is a move I think many of us are familiar with, The "Duval Crawl" by The Caribbean Cowboys

Rounding out the show is something I bet we all wish we had: James Slater take us home with "Key West Address"

Thanks for tuning in with us, hope to see y'all next week!

All of you Parrotheads know what's coming up, right?!?! The Meeting of the Minds is coming up next week from October 30th to November 3rd. We want to see your pictures from the party! Send them to us, post them on our Facebook page send the by carrier pigeon! If you haven't heard of the Meeting, it's an annual festival dedicated to trop rock, living on the islands and is hosted by Jimmy Buffett himself. Visit the site here and if you can make it out there, you won't be sorry!
