

The Flea Market has been a staple of KBEC's programming for decades. Now, for about a dollar a day, you can "buy, trade, or sell" online with the KBEC

For years, our listeners have had great success with buying, trading, and selling things on our Flea Market program - things as small as old cellphones or as big as new homes. With the launching of the new KBEC website this fall, the KBEC Crew wanted to give our audience a new avenue to exchange goods and services. One of the few drawbacks of listing items on a radio program is that people can't see exactly what's being listed, a problem we finally have the means to tackle with our new Online Flea Market. Our goal is to give people a safe, local means to buy, trade, or sell while utilizing the global power of the internet. Although we originally had what we like to call "big-ticket" items, or items worth more than $200, in mind for our online market, with thousands of unique visitors to our site daily we are finding that all kinds of items, services, and sales have a lot of opportunity for success with us.

An example of what an Online Flea Market ad might look like (note: this is not a real ad).

There are several ways you can post an ad with us on our Online Flea Market. One, you can click on our "post an item" link on our homepage or simply click here and fill in the form. Two, you can e-mail us a description of your item, some pictures, pricing, a way for our users to get in touch with you, and what part of the area you are from. Either way, we will put together a preview of your ad and send it to you, along with a link to our payment portal, and once we receive an "okay" on the ad and confirmation of payment we will have your ad up as soon as possible. We understand that many of our listeners may not be comfortable putting their private information online, so feel free to come on down to the station and we will be happy to help you in person.

If you are interested in placing an ad with us, our rates are $8 for one week, $15 for two, and $20 for three. We accept all major credit cards, Paypal, or cash. We are currently running a "Founders Special" - if your ad is up for three weeks and you are not able to sell your item, we will give you a fourth week free! So come join us and be a part of the newest way to "buy, trade, or sell" in the Ellis, Kaufman, Hill, Navarro, Tarrant, and southern Dallas County areas!
